Religious holiday scheduling and observance

FALL 2026-SUMMER 2027 / REFERENCE

BEFORE SENDING Share as a reference, not as an individually issued certification. The appropriate request depends on the student or employee and the institution.

Use this reference when discussing deadlines, classroom meetings, workplace shifts, or professional experiences. Jewish dates begin at sunset; local start and end times vary. The dates below reflect U.S. / Diaspora practice.

FALL 2026

- Hanukkah: Friday, December 4 at sundown-Saturday, December 12 at nightfall. Ordinary weekday work and classes are generally permitted; evening celebrations and Friday/Saturday Shabbos observance may create individual conflicts.

SPRING 2027

- Purim: Monday, March 22 at sundown-Tuesday, March 23 at nightfall. Some students may request schedule changes for specific observances; not a general prohibition on coursework.
- Pesach / Passover: Wednesday, April 21 at sundown-Thursday, April 29 at nightfall. Main festival days: Thursday-Friday April 22-23 and Wednesday-Thursday April 28-29. Shabbos April 24 is also observed. Intermediate days April 25-27 do not carry the same general work restrictions.
- Shavuot: Thursday, June 10 at sundown-Saturday, June 12 at nightfall. In U.S. / Diaspora observance, Friday June 11 and Saturday June 12 are festival days; the latter coincides with Shabbos.

BEFORE REQUESTING AN ADJUSTMENT

- Confirm your own observance, location, course schedule, and the institution’s process.
- Identify exactly which class, exam, assignment, or shift conflicts, and propose a workable alternative.
- Tell the instructor, academic office, or supervisor as early as possible. Keep a written record of the agreed arrangement.

These dates are general planning information, not proof of an individual’s religious practice. Israel calendar observance differs for some festivals.
