Purim: targeted class scheduling request

SPRING 2027 / UNIVERSITY

BEFORE SENDING Use only for a real scheduling conflict. Purim is not a blanket prohibition on coursework. Remove alternatives in brackets.

[DATE]

To: Professor [NAME], [COURSE / SECTION]

Subject: Schedule request for Purim on Tuesday, March 23, 2027

Dear Professor [LAST NAME],

I am writing about [CLASS / EXAM / ASSIGNMENT] scheduled for [DATE AND TIME]. I observe Purim, which begins Monday evening, March 22, and is observed on Tuesday, March 23, 2027.

My specific religious commitment is [READING OF THE MEGILLAH / PRAYER / FESTIVE MEAL / OTHER OBSERVANCE], which conflicts with [COURSE REQUIREMENT]. Could we arrange [SPECIFIC ALTERNATIVE, SUCH AS A DIFFERENT EXAM TIME OR EXTENSION]?

I understand that Purim is not observed with the same general work restrictions as Passover or Shavuot, so I am requesting a change only for the conflict described above.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

[YOUR NAME]

DATE REFERENCE Hebcal: Purim begins Mar 22 sundown and ends Mar 23 nightfall, 2027.